JBT News

Know Your Customer

"Red Flags"

When you encounter one or more of the following in dealings with prospects or customers, additional caution and care should be exercised before extending credit on open account. Reviewing the latest JBT credit report is a prudent place to start.

Identifying these "red flags" is helpful not only to assess credit risk, but as a step in knowing your customer; to assure compliance with government regulations, and just plain good business practices.

Unknown References...If trade references provided are unknown to you, are new businesses, or are not listed with JBT, extra caution should be exercised.

Glowing References... Check with directory assistance for business listing or check to see if listed with JBT. If not listed, extra caution should be exercised.

Large # of Reference Requests from Others...If you have conducted satisfactory business with an account on a small scale and subsequently receive multiple requests for trade references from other vendors, state your experience and reference the fact that you have received many trade reference requests from other vendors.

High # of Inquiries...As a result of simultaneously placing random orders with many suppliers, a large number of inquiries may be noted in the company's JBT report ("Number of Inquiries in the Past 90 Days"). Alternatively, the company may appear on JBT's Frequent Inquiry Report. While other circumstances may easily explain such activity, further inquiry and investigation are always warranted.

Calls Answered by Answering Service...Most legitimate businesses are answered by a receptionist or electronic switchboard during normal business hours. Also, beware of receptionists who do not identify the name of the company when answering your call or answer with a name unfamiliar to you.

Contact JBT for help in analyzing these situations 401-467-0055 or email us info@jewelersboard.com.

Every JBT Member is Entitled to 25 Free Credit Reports per Calendar Year

Many JBT members take for granted their existing customers' creditworthiness. You should know that as dynamic as a payment score is, it represents only one factor to consider in assessing credit risk.

If you think you don't need to draw credit reports on your existing customers, perhaps its time to reconsider.

- Do you know the history of the principals?
- Do you know how long they have been in business?
- Do you know what their recent high credit amount is?
- Have you seen how they pay other suppliers?
- Do you know if they've been shopping for new vendors? (inquiries)
- Do you know if they have been placed for collection?
- Have any UCC's or judgments been filed against them?
- Has anything changed? (e.g. ownership) since you last drew a report.

Know your customer. Take steps to be sure you use all the information JBT makes available to arrive at a credit decision.

Ordering a credit report is simple. Call 1-800-388-5268, enter your member number and password - follow the prompts or email bdelude@jewelersboard.com.

Interchange members may go to www.jewelersboard.com and draw reports directly from our website. For information about our Interchange program, contact Brenda Gamba at bgamba@jewelersboard.com.

Draw Credit Reports....It just makes good business sense.
